CHAPTER I-A
REGISTRATION OF PLANTATIONS

3-A. Appointment of registering officers. - The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette,-
(a) Appoint such persons, being Gazetted Officers of Government as it thinks fit, to be registering officers for the purposes of this Chapter, and

(b) Define the limits within which a registering office shall exercise the powers and discharge the functions conferred or imposed on him by or under this Chapter.

3-B. Registration of plantations. -

(1) Every employer of a plantation, existing at the commencement of the Plantations Labour (Amendment) Act. 1981 shall, within a period of sixty days of such commencement, and every employer of any other plantation coming into existence after such commencement shall, within a period of sixty days of the coming into existence of such plantation, make an application to the registering officer for the registration of such plantation.

Provided that the registering officer may entertain any such application after the expiry of the period aforesaid if he is satisfied that the applicant was prevented by sufficient cause from making the application within such period.

(2) Every application made under sub-section (1) shall be in such form and shall contain such particulars and shall be accompanied by such fees as may be prescribed.

(3) After the receipt of an application under sub-section (1), the registering officer shall register the plantation.

(4) Where a plantation is registered under this section, the registering officer shall issue a certificate of registration to the employer thereof in such form as may be prescribed.

(5) Where, after the registration of a plantation under this section, any change occurs in the ownership or management or in the extent of the area or other prescribed particulars in respect of such plantation, the particulars regarding such change be intimated by the employer to the registering officer within thirty days of such change in such form as may be prescribed.

(6) Where as a result of any intimation received under sub-section (5), the registering officer is satisfied that the plantation is no longer required to be registered under this section, he shall, by order in writing, cancel the registration thereof and shall as soon as practicable, cause such order to be published in any one newspaper in the language of, and having circulation in, the area where the plantation is situated.
3-C. Appeals against orders of registering officer. -

(1) Any person aggrieved by the order of a registering officer under sub-section (6) of Section 3-B may, within thirty days of the publication of such order in the newspaper under that sub-section, prefer an appeal to such authority as may be prescribed:

Provided that the appellate authority may entertain an appeal under this sub-section after the expiry of the aforesaid period if it is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from preferring the appeal within such period.

(2) After the receipt of an appeal under sub-section (1), the appellate authority may, after giving the appellant, the employer referred to in sub-section (5) of Section 3-B and the registering officer an opportunity of being heard in the matter, dispose of the appeal as expeditiously as possible.

CHAPTER II

INSPECTING STAFF

4. Chief inspector and inspectors-

(1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint for the State duly qualified person to be chief inspector of plantations, and so many duly qualified persons to be inspectors of plantations subordinate to the chief inspector as it thinks fit.

1[(I-A) The State Government may also, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint such officers of the State Government or of any local authority under its control as it thinks fit, to be additional inspectors of plantations for all or any of the purposes of this Act]

(2) Subject to such rules as may be made in this behalf by the State Government, the chief inspector may declare that local area or areas within which or the plantations with respect to which, inspectors shall exercise their powers under this Act, and may himself exercise the powers of an inspector within such limits as may be assigned to him by the State Government.

(3) The Chief Inspector and if inspectors shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860).
5. Powers and functions of inspectors. - Subject to any rules made by the State Government in this behalf, an inspector may within the local limits for which he is appointed--

(a) Make such examination and inquiry as he thinks fit in order to ascertain whether the provisions of this Act and of the rules made thereunder are being observed in the case of any plantation;

(b) With such assistants, if any, as he thinks fit, enter, inspect and examine any plantation or part thereof at any reasonable time for the purpose of carrying out the objects of this Act;

(c) Examine the crops grown in any plantation or any worker employed therein or require the production of any register or other document maintained in pursuance of this Act and take on the spot or otherwise statements on any person which he may consider necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Act;

(d) Exercise such other powers as may be prescribed:

Provided that no person shall be compelled under this section to answer any question or make any statement tending to incriminate himself.

6. Facilities to be afforded to inspectors. - Every employer shall afford the inspector all reasonable facilities for making any entry, inspection, examination or inquiry under this Act.

7. Certifying surgeons. -

(1) The State Government may appoint qualified medical practitioners to be certifying surgeons for the purposes of this Act within such local limits or for such plantation or class of plantation as it may assign to them respectively.

(2) The certifying shall carry out such duties as may be prescribed in connection with-

(a) The examination and Certification of workers;

(b) The exercise of such medical supervision as may be prescribed where adolescents and children are, or are to be, employed in any work in any plantation which is likely to cause injury to their health.

CHAPTER III
PROVISIONS AS TO HEALTH
8. Drinking water. - In every plantation effective arrangements shall be made by the employer to provide and maintain at convenient places in the plantation a sufficient supply of wholesome drinking water for all workers.

9. Conservancy. -

   (1) There shall be provided separately for males and females in every plantation a sufficient number of latrines and urinals of prescribed types so situated as to be convenient and accessible to workers employed therein.

   (2) All latrines and urinals provided under sub-section (1) shall be maintained in a clean and sanitary condition.

10. Medical Facilities -

   (1) In every plantation there shall be provided and maintained so as to be readily available such medical facilities for the workers [and their families] as may be prescribed by the State Government.

   (2) If in any plantation medical facilities are not provided and maintained as required by sub-section (1) the chief inspector may cause to be provided and maintained therein such medical facilities, and recover the cost thereof from the defaulting employer.

   (3) For the purposes of such recovery the chief inspector may certify the costs to be recovered to the collector, who may recover the amount as an arrear of land revenue.

CHAPTER IV

WELFARE

11. Canteens. —

   (1) The State Government may make rules requiring that in every plantation wherein one hundred and fifty workers are ordinarily employed, one or more canteens shall be provided and maintained by the employer for the use of the workers.

   (2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power such rules may provide for-

      (a) The date by which the canteen shall be provided;
(b) The number of canteens that shall be provided and the standards in respect of construction, accommodation, furniture and other equipment of the canteen;

(c) The foodstuffs which may be served therein and the charges which may be made therefor;

(d) The constitution of a managing committee for the canteen and the representation of the workers in the management of the canteen;

(e) The delegation to the chief inspector, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, of the power to make rules under clause (c).

12. Creches. —

1[(1) In every plantation wherein fifty or more women workers (including women workers employed by any contractor) are employed or were employed on any day of the preceding twelve months, or where the number of children of women workers (including women workers employed by any contractor) is twenty or more, there shall be provided and maintained by the employer suitable rooms for the use of children of such women workers.

Explanation. - For the purposes of this sub-section and sub-section (1-A), “children” means persons who are below the age of six years.]

2[(I-A) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), if, in respect of any plantation wherein less than fifty women workers (including women workers employed by any contractor) are employed or were employed on any day of the preceding twelve months, or where the number of children of such women workers is less than twenty, the State Government, having regard to the number of children of such women workers deems it necessary that suitable rooms for the use of such children should be provided and maintained by the employer, it may, by order, direct the employer to provide and maintain such rooms and thereupon the employer shall be bound to comply with such direction.]

(2) [The rooms referred to in sub-section (1) or sub-section 1-A] 1 shall-

(a) Provide adequate accommodation;

(b) Be adequately lighted and ventilated;

(c) Be maintained in a clean and sanitary condition; and
(d) Be under the charge of a woman trained in the care of children and infants.

(3) The State Government may make rules prescribing the location and the standards of the rooms referred to in sub-section (1) or sub-section (1-A) in respect of their construction and accommodation and the equipment and amenities to be provided therein.

13. Recreational facilities. - The State Government may make rules requiring every employer to make provision in his plantation for such recreational facilities for the workers and children employed therein as may be prescribed.

14. Educational facilities. - Where the children between the ages of six and twelve of workers employed in any plantation exceed twenty-five in number, the State Government may make rules, requiring every employer to provide educational facilities for the children in such manner and of such standard as may be prescribed.

1[15. Housing facilities. -- It shall be the duty of every employer to provide and maintain necessary housing accommodation-

   (a) For every worker (including his family) residing in the plantation;

   (b) For every worker (including his family) residing outside the plantation, who has put in six months of continuous service in such plantation and who has expressed a desire in writing to reside in the plantation:

       Provided that the requirement of continuous service of six months under this clause shall not apply to a worker who is a member of the family, of a deceased worker who, immediately before his death, was residing in the plantation.]

16. Power to make rules relating to housing. - The State Government may make rule for the purposes of giving effect to the provisions of Section 15 and, in particular providing for--

   (a) The standard and specification of the accommodation to be provided;

   (b) The selection and preparation of sites for the construction of houses and the size of such plot;

   (c) The constitution of advisory boards consisting of representatives of the State Government, the employer and the workers for consultation in regard to matters connected with housing and the exercise by them of such powers, functions and duties in relation thereto as may be specified;
(d) The fixing of rent, if any, for the housing accommodation provided for workers;

(e) The allotment to workers and their families of housing accommodation and suitable strips of vacant land adjoining such accommodation for the purposes of maintaining kitchen gardens, [* * *]¹a and for the eviction of workers and their families from such accommodation;

(f) Access to the public to those parts of the plantation wherein the workers are housed.

(1) If death or injury is caused to any worker or a member of his family as a result of the collapse of a house provided under Section 15, and the collapse is not solely and directly attributable to a fault on the part of any occupant of the house or to a natural, calamity, the employer shall be liable to pay compensation.

(2) The provisions of Section 4 of, and Schedule IV to, the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923 (8 of 1923), as in force for the time being, regarding the amount of compensation payable to a workman under that Act shall, so far as may be, apply for the determination of the amount of compensation payable under sub-section (1).

16-B. Appointment of Commissioners. - The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint as many persons, possessing the prescribed qualifications, as it thinks fit, to be Commissioners to determine the amount of compensation payable under Section 16-A and may define the limits within which each such Commissioner shall exercise the powers and discharge the functions conferred or imposed on him by, or under this Act.

16-C. Application for compensation. -

(1) An application for payment of compensation under Section 16-A may be made to the Commissioner-

(a) By the person who has sustained the injury; or

(b) By any agent duly authorised by the person who has sustained the injury; or

(c) Where the person who has sustained the injury is a minor, by his guardian; or
Where death has resulted out of the collapse of the house, by any dependant of the deceased or by any agent duly authorised by such dependant or, if such dependant is a minor, by his guardian.

Every application under sub-section (1) shall be in such form and shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed.

No application for compensation under this section shall be entertained unless it is made within six months of the collapse of the house:

Provided that the Commissioner may, if he is satisfied that the applicant was prevented by sufficient cause from making the application within the aforesaid period of six months, entertain such application within a further period of six months.

Explanation. - In this section, the expression “dependant” has the meaning assigned to it in clause (d) of Section 2 of the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923 (8 of 1923).

16-D. Procedure and powers. -

(1) On receipt of an application under Section 16-C, the Commissioner may make an inquiry into the matter covered by the application.

(2) In determining the amount of compensation payable under Section 16-A, the Commissioner may, subject to any rules that may be made in this behalf, follow such summary procedure as he thinks fit.

(3) The Commissioner shall have all the powers of a civil court while trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908) in respect of the following matters, namely: -

(a) Summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;

(b) Requiring the discovery and production of any document;

(c) Receiving evidence on affidavits;

(d) Requisitioning any public record or copy thereof from any court or officer;

(e) Issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses or documents;
(f) Any other matter which may be prescribed.

(4) Subject to any rules that may be made in this behalf, the Commissioner may, for the purpose of determining any claim or compensation, choose one or more persons possessing special knowledge of any matter relevant to the inquiry to assist him in holding the inquiry.

16-E. Liability to pay compensation, etc., to be decided by Commissioner. -

(1) Any question as to the liability of an employer to pay compensation under Section 16-A, or as to the amount thereof, or as to the person to whom such compensation is payable, shall be decided by the Commissioner.

(2) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Commissioner refusing to grant compensation, or as to the amount compensation granted to him, or to the apportionment thereof, may prefer an appeal to the High Court having jurisdiction over the place where the collapse of the house has occurred, within ninety days of the communication of the order of the Commissioner to such person:

Provided that the High Court may entertain any such appeal after the expiry of the period aforesaid if it is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from preferring the appeal within such period:

Provided further that nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to authorise the High Court to grant compensation in excess of the amount of Compensation payable under Section 16-A.

(3) Subject to the decision of the High Court in cases in which an appeal is preferred under sub-section (2), the decision of the Commissioner under sub-section (1) shall be final and shall not be called in question in any court.

16-F. Saving as to certain rights. - The right of any person to claim compensation under Section 16-A shall be without prejudice to the right of such person to recover compensation payable under any other law for the time being in force; but no person shall be entitled to claim compensation more than once in respect of the same collapse of the house.

17. Other facilities. - The State Government may make rules requiring that in every plantation the employer shall provide the workers with such number and type of umbrellas, blankets, rain coats or other tile amenities for the protection of workers from rain or cold as may be prescribed.

18. Welfare officers. -
In every plantation wherein three hundred or more workers are ordinarily employed the employer shall employ such number of welfare officers as may be prescribed.

The State Government may prescribe the duties, qualifications and conditions of service of officers employed under sub-section (1).

CHAPTER V
HOURS AND LIMITATION OF EMPLOYMENT

19. Weekly hours. -

Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, no adult worker shall be required or allowed to work on any plantation in excess of forty-eight hours a week and no adolescent or child for more than twenty-seven hours a week.

Where an adult worker works in any plantation on any day in excess of the number of hours constituting a normal working day or for more than forty-eight hours in any week, he shall, in respect of such overtime work, be entitled to twice the rates of ordinary wages:

Provided that no worker such shall be allowed to work for more than nine hours on any day and more than fifty-four hours in any week.

For any work done on any closed holiday in the plantation or on any day of rest, a worker shall be entitled to twice the rates of ordinary wages as in the case of overtime work.

20. Weekly holidays. -

The State Government may by rules made in this behalf -

Provide for a day of rest, in every period of seven days which shall be allowed to all workers;

Provide for the conditions subject to which, and the circumstances in which, an adult worker may be required or allowed to work overtime.

Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (a) of subsection (1) where a worker is willing to work on any day of rest which is not a closed holiday in the plantation, nothing contained in this section shall prevent him from doing so:

Provided that in so doing a worker does not work for more than ten days consecutively without a holiday for a whole day intervening.

Explanation 1. Where on any day a worker has been prevented from working in any plantation by reason of tempest, fire, rain or other natural causes, that day, may, if he so desires, be treated as his day of rest for the relevant period of seven days within the meaning of sub-section (1).

Explanation 2. Nothing contained in this section shall apply to any worker whose total period of employment including any day spent on leave is less than six days.

21. Daily intervals for rest. - The period of work on each day shall be so fixed that no period shall exceed five hours and that no worker shall work for more than five hours before he has had an interval for rest for at least half an hour.

22. Spread-over. - The period of work of an adult worker in a plantation shall be so arranged that inclusive of his interval for rest under Section 1a[21] it shall not spread over more than twelve hours including the time spent in waiting for work on any day.

23. Notice of period of work. -

(1) There shall be displayed and correctly maintained in every plantation a notice of periods of work in such form and manner as may be prescribed showing clearly for every day the periods during which the workers may be required to work.

(2) Subject to the other provisions contained in this Act, no worker shall be required or allowed to work in any plantation otherwise than in accordance with the notice of periods of work displayed in the plantation.

(3) An employer may refuse to employ a worker for any day if on that day he turns up for work more than half an hour after the time fixed for the commencement of the day's work.

25. Night work for women and children. - Except with the permission of the State Government, no woman or child worker shall be employed in any plantation otherwise than between the hours of 6 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Provided that nothing in this section shall be deemed to apply to midwives and nurses employed as such in any plantation.
26. Non-adult workers to carry tokens. - No child and no adolescent shall be required or allowed to work in any plantation unless-

(a) A certificate of fitness granted with the reference to him under Section 27 is in the custody of the employer; and

(b) Such child or adolescent carries with him while he is at work a token giving a reference to such certificate.

27. Certificate of fitness. –

(1) A certifying surgeon shall, on the application of any young person or his parent or guardian accompanied by a document signed by the employer or any other person on his behalf at such person will be employed in the plantation if certified to be fit for work, or on the application of the employer or any other person on his behalf with reference to any young person intending to work, “amine such person and ascertain his fitness for work either as a child or as an adolescent.

(2) A certificate of fitness granted under this section shall be valid for a period of twelve months from the date thereof, but may be renewed.

(3) Any fee payable for a certificate under this section shall be paid by the employer and shall not be recoverable from the young person, his parents or guardian.

28. Power to require medical examination. - An inspector may if he thinks necessary so to do, cause any young person employed in, a plantation to be examined by a certifying surgeon.

CHAPTER-VI

LEAVE WITH WAGES

29. Application of chapter. - The provisions of this chapter shall not operate to the prejudice of any rights to which a worker may be entitled under any other law or under the terms of any award, agreement, or contract of service:

Provided that where such award, agreement or contract of service provides for a longer leave with wages than provided in this chapter the worker shall be entitled only to such longer leave.

Explanation. - For the purpose of this chapter leave shall not, except as provided in Section 30, include weekly holidays or holidays for festivals or other similar occasions.

30. Annual leave with wages. –
(1) Every worker shall be allowed leave with wages for a number of days calculated at the rate of.

(a) If an adult, one day for every twenty days of work performed by him, and

(b) If a young person, one day for every fifteen days of work performed by him:

2[Explanation-(1)] for the purposes of calculating leave under this sub-section,-

(a) Any day on which no work or less than half a day's work is performed shall be counted, and

(b) Any day on which half or more than half a day's work is performed shall be counted as one day.]

3 [Explanation. -(2) The leave admissible under this subjection shall be exclusive of all holidays, whether occurring during, or at either end of, the period of leave.)

(2) If a worker does not in any one period of twelve months take the whole of the leave owed to him under sub-section (1), and leave not taken by him shall be added to the leave to be allowed to him under that subsection in the succeeding period of twelve months.

(3) A worker shall cease to earn any leave under this section when the earned leave due to him amounts to thirty days.

2[(4) If the employment of a worker who is entitled to leave under this section is terminated by the employer before he, has taken the entire leave to which he is entitled, the Employer shall. Pay him the amount payable, under Section 31 in respect of the leave not taken, and such payment shall be made before the expiry of the second working day after-such termination.]

31. Wages during leave period. –

1(1) For the leave allowed to a worker under Section 30, he shall be paid, -

(a) If employed wholly on a time-rate basis, at a rate equal to the daily wage payable to him immediately before the commencement of such leave under any law or under the terms of any, award, agreement or contract of service, and
(b) In other cases, including cases where he is, during the preceding twelve calendar months, paid partly on a time-rate basis and partly on a piece-rate basis, at the rate of the average daily wage calculated over the preceding twelve calendar months.

Explanation. - For the purposes of clause (b) of sub-section (1) the average daily wage shall be computed on the basis of his total full-time earnings during the preceding twelve calendar months, exclusive of any overtime earnings or bonus, if any, but inclusive dearness allowances.

(I-A) In addition to the wages for the leave period at the rates specified in sub-section (1), a worker shall also be paid the cash value of food and other concessions, if any, allowed to him by the employer in addition to his daily wages unless these concessions are continued during the leave period.

(2) Worker who has been allowed leave for any period not less than four days in the case of an adult and five days in the case of a young person under Section 30 shall, before his leave begins, be paid his wages for the period of the leave allowed.

1[32. Sickness and maternity benefits. –

(1) Subject to any rules that may be made in this behalf, every wonder shall be entitled to obtain from his employer-

(a) In the case of sickness certified by a qualified medical practitioner, sickness allowance, and

(b) If a woman, in the case of confinement or expected confinement, maternity allowance,

At such rate, for such period and at such intervals as may be prescribed.

1[CHAPTER VI-A

ACCIDENTS
