The West Bengal Payment of Gratuity Rules, 1973
THE WEST BENGAL PAYMENT OF GRATUITY RULES, 1973

(Published in the Calcutta Gazette, Extraordinary, Pt.I, dt. 27.02.1973)

No. 131-IR/IR/EIL/IR-5/72. dated 11th January 1973.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 15 of the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 (Act 39 of 1972), and in supersession of the West Bengal Employees Payment of Compulsory Gratuity Rules, 1971, as published in the "Calcutta Gazette, Extraordinary," dated the 10th September 1971, the Governor is pleased hereby to make the following rules, namely:—

1. Short title and Commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the West Bengal Payment of Gratuity Rules, 1973.

(2) These rules shall be deemed to have come into force on and from the 16th September, 1972.

2. Definition.—(1) In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "Act" means the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 (Act 39 of 1972);
(b) "appellate authority" means the State Government or any authority specified by it under sub-section (7) of section 7;
(c) "form" means a form appended to these rules;
(d) "nomination" means nomination made under section 6; and
(e) "section" means a section of the Act.

(2) All words and expressions used in these rules, unless otherwise defined, shall have the same meaning as in the Act.

3. Notice of applicability, change of particulars or closure.—
(1) Within thirty days of these rules becoming applicable to a factory, shop, establishment or plantation, as the case may be, a notice in Form A shall be served by the employer concerned on the controlling authority of the area:

Provided that in the case of a factory, shop, establishment or plantation, to which these rules are applicable with effect from the enforcement of these rules, such notice may be served on the controlling authority within such longer period as may be specified by the State Government by a notification in this behalf.

(2) Within thirty days of any change taking place in regard to any information furnished in Form A, the employer concerned shall serve a notice of such change to the controlling authority of the area in Form B.

(3) Where an employer intends to close down his business, he shall serve a notice of such intended closure in Form C on the controlling authority of the area at least sixty days before the date of intended closure.
(4) All notices to be served under this rule shall be served either personally on a person specified for the purpose by the controlling authority with receipt therefor or by registered post with acknowledgement due.

4. Display of notice and abstract of the Acts and the rules.—
(1) Every employer shall display conspicuously a notice at or near the main entrance of the factory, plantation, shop or establishment, as the case may be, in bold letters in English, Bengali and in a language understood by the majority of the employees specifying the name of the officer with designation authorised by the employer to receive on his behalf notices or applications under the Act or these rules.

(2) Every employer shall display an abstract of the Act and these rules in English, Bengali and in a language understood by the majority of the employees at a conspicuous place at or nearabout the main entrance of the factory, plantation, shop or establishment, as the case may be.

(3) A fresh notice or abstract of the Act or the rules, as the case may be, shall be displayed immediately after the notice or abstract of the Act or the rules, as the case may be, referred to in sub-rules (1) and (2) becomes illegible or requires a change.

5. Form of notice under proviso to section 2(h)(ii).—(1) A notice under the proviso to sub-clause (ii) of clause (h) of section 2 shall be in Form D and sent in triplicate to the employer concerned who shall return one copy thereof to the employee concerned and sent the other copy to the controlling authority, after recording its receipt and such notice shall be attested by two witnesses.

(2) An employee who gives a notice under sub-rule (1) may cancel it by a notice in triplicate in Form E to the employer concerned, who shall follow the same procedure as in sub-rule (1) in disposing of the notice and such notice of cancellation shall also be attested by two witnesses.

6. Nomination.—(1) The nomination under sub-section (1) of section 6 shall be in duplicate in Form F and submitted by personal service, after taking receipt, either to the employer concerned, or if so directed, to an officer authorised in this behalf by the employer concerned—

(i) in the case of an employee, who is already in employment for a year or more on the date of commencement of these rules, ordinarily, within ninety days from such date, and

(ii) in the case of an employee, who completes one year of service after the date of commencement of these rules, ordinarily, within thirty days of the completion of one year of service after such date:

Provided that nomination in Form F shall be accepted by the employer concerned also after the specified period, if filed with reasonable grounds for the delay, and no nomination shall be invalid merely because it was filed after the specified period.

(2) Within thirty days of the receipt of a nomination in Form F under sub-rule (1), the employer concerned shall get the service particulars of the employee, as mentioned in the nomination, verified with reference to the records of the factory, plantation, shop or establishment, as the case may be, and return to the employee concerned, after obtaining a receipt therefor, the duplicate copy of the nomination in Form F duly attested either by the employer concerned or an officer authorised in this behalf by him, as a token of recording of the nomination by the employer concerned and the other copy of the nomination shall be recorded and preserved permanently by the employer for future reference.

(3) If an employee had no family at the time of making a nomination under sub-rule (1) or if a nominee predeceases the employee, the employee concerned shall, within thirty days of acquiring a family or death of the nominee, as the case may be, file a fresh nomination, as required under sub-section (4) of section 6, in duplicate in Form G, to the employer concerned, or if so directed by him, to an officer authorised in this behalf by the employer concerned, and thereafter the provisions of sub-rule (2) shall apply mutatis mutandis as if it was filed under sub-rule (1).

(4) A notice for modification of any nomination made under sub-rules (1) and (3) shall be submitted in duplicate in Form H to the employer concerned, or if so directed by him, to an officer authorised in this behalf by the employer concerned, and thereafter, the provisions of sub-rule (2) shall apply mutatis mutandis as if it was filed under sub-rule (1).

(5) A nomination or a fresh nomination or a notice of modification of nomination shall be signed or, if the person making the nomination is illiterate, thumb impressed in the presence of two witnesses, who shall also sign a declaration to that effect in the nomination, fresh nomination or notice of modification of nomination, as the case may be, and such nomination, fresh nomination or notice of modification of nomination shall be filed by personal service, after taking receipt and take effect from the date of receipt thereof by the employer.

7. Application for gratuity.—(1) An employee, who is eligible for payment of gratuity under the Act, shall apply, ordinarily within one hundred and twenty days from the date the gratuity became payable, in Form I to the employer concerned:

Provided that where the date of superannuation, retirement or resignation of an employee is known the employee concerned, may apply in Form I to the employer concerned before thirty days of the date of superannuation, retirement or resignation, as the case may be.

(2) A nominee of an employee, who is eligible for payment of gratuity under the second proviso to sub-section (1) of section 4, shall apply ordinarily within one hundred and eighty days from the date the gratuity became payable to him, in Form J to the employer concerned:

Provided that an application in plain paper with sufficient particulars shall also be accepted and the employer concerned may obtain such other particulars as may be deemed necessary by him.

(3) An heir of an employee, who is eligible for payment of gratuity under the second proviso to sub-section (1) of section 4, shall apply ordinarily within one year from the date the gratuity became payable to him, in Form K to the employer concerned.
(4) In case gratuity became payable under the Act before the date of commencement of these rules, the periods of limitation specified in sub-rules (1), (2) and (3) shall be deemed to be operative from the date of commencement of these rules.

(5) An application for payment of gratuity filed after the expiry of the periods specified in this rule shall also be entertained by the employer concerned, if the applicant adduces sufficient cause for the delay in preferring his claim, and no claim for gratuity under the Act shall be invalid merely because the claimant failed to present his application within the specified period and any dispute in this regard shall be referred to the controlling authority and his decision thereon shall be final.

(6) An application under this rule for payment of gratuity shall be presented to the employer concerned, or if so directed by him, to an officer authorised in this behalf by the employer either by personal service or by registered post with acknowledgement due.

8. Notice for payment of gratuity.—(1) Within thirty days of receipt of an application under rule 7 for payment of gratuity, the employer concerned shall,—

(i) if the claim is found admissible on verification, issue a notice in duplicate in Form L to the applicant employee, nominee or heir, as the case my be, specifying the amount of gratuity payable and fixing a date not being later than forty-fifth day after the date of receipt of the application, for payment thereof, or

(ii) if the claim for gratuity is not found admissible, issue a notice in duplicate in Form M to the applicant employee, nominee or legal heir, as the case may be, specifying the reasons why the claim for gratuity is not considered admissible.

Explanation.—In either case a copy of the notice shall be endorsed to the controlling authority.

(2) In case payment of gratuity is due to be made in the employer’s office, the date fixed for purpose in the notice in Form L under clause (i) of sub-rule (1) shall be re-fixed by the employer, if a written application in this behalf is made by the payee explaining why it is not possible for him to be present in person on the date specified.

(3) If the claimant for gratuity is a nominee or an heir, the employer concerned may ask for such witness or evidence as may be deemed relevant for establishing his identity or maintainability of his claim and in that case the time-limit specified for issuance of notices under sub-rule (1) shall be operative with effect from the date such witness or evidence as called for by the employer, is furnished to the latter:

Provided that issuance of an appropriate notice under sub-rule (1) shall not be delayed beyond ninety days from the date of receipt of an application under rule 7, except with the consent of the applicant or approval of the controlling authority in writing.

(4) A notice in Form L or M shall be served on the applicant either by personal service after taking receipt or by registered post with acknowledgement due.
9. Mode of payment of gratuity.—(1) The gratuity payable under the Act shall ordinarily be paid in cash or, if so desired by the payee in Demand Draft or bank cheque personally to the eligible employee, nominee or heir, as the case may be:

Provided that in case the eligible employee, nominee or heir, as the case may be, so desires and the amount of gratuity payable is less than one thousand rupees, payment may be made by postal money order after deducting the postal money order commission therefor from the amount payable:

Provided further that the employer concerned and the eligible employee, nominee or heir, as the case may be, may devise between them any other mode of payment mutually acceptable to both the sides.

(2) The employer shall maintain a register recording details of payment made on account of gratuity and shall intimate to the controlling authority of the area the details of payment made in each case.

10. Application to controlling authority for direction.—(1) If any employer—

(i) refuses to accept nomination or entertain an application sought to be filed under rule 7, or

(ii) issues a notice under sub-rule (I) of rule 8 either specifying an amount of gratuity, which is considered by the applicant less than what is payable or rejecting eligibility to payment of gratuity, or

(iii) having received an application under rule 7, fails to issue any notice, as required under rule 8, within the time-limit specified therein, and if there is any other dispute in any matter under the Act, the claimant employee, nominee or heir, as the case may be, within ninety days of the occurrence of the cause for the application, apply in triplicate in Form N to the controlling authority for issuing a direction under sub-section (4) of section 7:

Provided that the controlling authority may accept an application under this sub-rule, on sufficient cause being shown by the applicant, after the expiry of the specified period.

(2) Applications under sub-rule (1) and other documents relevant to such an application shall be presented in person to the controlling authority at any time during hours fixed by him for the purpose or shall be sent to the controlling authority by register post and the controlling authority shall at once endorse or cause to be endorsed on each such application or other document the date of presentation or receipt thereof, as the case may be.

11. Procedure for dealing with application for direction.—(1) Within thirty days of the receipt of an application under rule 10 or as soon thereafter as may be possible, the controlling authority shall, by issuing a notice in Form O, call upon the applicant as well as the employer concerned to appear before him on a specified date, not being earlier than fourteen days after the date of service of the notice, either by himself or through his authorised representative together with all relevant documents and witnesses, if any;
Provided that the date fixed for hearing may be extended by the controlling authority either suor moto or on application by either of the parties.

(2) Any person desiring to act on behalf of an employer or employee, nominee or heir, as the case may be, shall present to the controlling authority a letter of authority from the employer or the person concerned, as the case may be, on whose behalf he seeks to act together with a written statement explaining his interest in the matter and praying for permission so to act and the controlling authority shall record thereon an order either according his approval or specifying, in the case of refusal to grant the permission prayed for, the reasons for the refusal.

(3) A party appearing by an authorised representative shall be bound by the acts of the representative.

(4) After completion of hearing on the date fixed under sub-rule (1), or after such further evidence, examination of documents or witnesses and hearing, as may be deemed necessary, the controlling authority shall record his finding as to whether any amount is payable to the applicant under the Act and a copy of the finding shall be given to each of the parties.

(5) If the employer concerned fails to appear on the specified date of hearing without sufficient ground, the controlling authority may proceed to hear and determine the application ex-parte and if the applicant fails to appear on the specified date of hearing without sufficient ground, the controlling authority may dismiss the application:

Provided that an order under this sub-rule may, on good cause being shown within thirty days of the said order, be reviewed and the application re-heard after giving not less than fourteen days' notice to the opposite party of the date fixed for re-hearing of the application.

12. Place and time of hearing.—The sittings of the controlling authority shall be held at such times and at such places as he may fix and he shall inform the parties of the same in such manner as he things fit.

13. Administration of oath.—The controlling authority may authorise a clerk of his office to administer oaths for the purpose of making affidavits.

14. Summoning and attendance of witnesses.—The controlling authority may, at any stage of the proceedings before him, either upon or without an application by any of the parties involved in the proceedings before him, and on such terms as may appear to the controlling authority just, issue summons to any person in Form P either to give evidence or to produce documents or for both purposes on a specified date, time and place.

15. Service of summons or notice.—(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (2), any notice, summons, process or order issued by the controlling authority may be served either personally or by registered post with acknowledgement due or in any other manner, as prescribed under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act 5 of 1908).

(2) Where there are numerous persons as parties to any proceeding before the controlling authority and such persons are members of any trade union or association or are represented by an authorised person, the service of notice on the Secretary, or where there is no Secretary, on the principal officer of the trade union or association, or on the authorised person, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be service on such persons.

16. Maintenance of records of cases by the controlling authority.—(1) The controlling authority shall record the particulars of each case under section 7, in Form Q and at the time of passing orders shall sign and date the particulars so recorded.

(2) The controlling authority shall, while passing orders in each case, also record the findings on the merits of the case and file it together with the memoranda of evidence with the order sheet.

(3) Any record, other than a record of any order or direction, which is required by these rules to be signed by the controlling authority, may be signed on behalf of and under direction of the controlling authority by any subordinate officer appointed in writing for this purpose by the controlling authority.

17. Direction for payment of gratuity.—If a finding is recorded under sub-rule (4) of rule 11 that the applicant is entitled to payment of gratuity under the Act, the controlling authority shall issue a notice to the employer concerned in Form R specifying the amount payable and directing payment thereof to the applicant under intimation to the controlling authority within thirty days from the date of receipt of the notice and a copy of the notice shall be endorsed to the applicant employee, nominee or heir, as the case may be.

18. Appeal from the orders of controlling authority.—(1) The appeal under sub-section (7) of section 7 shall be in the form of a memorandum setting forth concisely the facts of the case, grounds of objection to the order or direction against which the appeal is preferred and the relief sought for, and every such memorandum of appeal shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the controlling authority’s order or direction, which is the subject matter of the appeal.

(2) The memorandum of appeal under sub-rule (1) shall be submitted to the 1[appeellate] authority and a copy thereof shall be served on all the opposite parties, including the controlling authority, either by personal service after obtaining receipt or by registered post with acknowledgement due.

(3) Within fourteen days of the receipt of a copy of the memorandum of appeal—

(a) the controlling authority shall forward all the records of the case against which the appeal has been preferred,

(b) the opposite party shall submit his written statement containing comments on each paragraph of the memorandum of appeal and additional pleas, if any,

to the appellate authority and the opposite party shall serve a copy of the written statement on the appellant either by personal service after obtaining receipt or by registered post with acknowledgement due.

1 Substituted by Notification No. 5094-I.R/EIL/I.R.-5/72 dated 20th July, 1973 (published in the Calcutta Gazette dt. 16th August, 1973 at page 1532 of Pt. I) for the word “Controlling”.

(4) The appellate authority shall record its decision after giving the parties to the appeal a reasonable opportunity of being heard and shall forward a copy of the decision to the parties concerned and the controlling authority and the records of the controlling authority received under sub-rule (3) shall be returned to him by the appellate authority while forwarding a copy of the decision to him under this rule—

if the appeal be disposed of ex parte or struck out or dismissed for default, the appellate authority can, within 60 days from the date of the order, restore it to file if sufficient cause be shown for the appellant's non-appearance on the date of the hearing of the appeal.

(5) The controlling authority shall, on receipt of the decision of the appellate authority, make necessary entry in the records of the case maintained in Form S under sub-rule (1) of rule 16.

(6) On receipt of the decision of the appellate authority, the controlling authority shall, if required under that decision, modify his direction for payment of gratuity and issue a notice to the employer concerned in Form S specifying the modified amount payable and directing payment thereof to the applicant, under intimation to the controlling authority within fifteen days of the receipt of the notice by the employer and a copy of the notice shall be endorsed to the applicant employee, nominee, heir, as the case may be, and to the appellate authority.

19. Application for recovery of gratuity.—In case an employer fails to pay the gratuity due under the Act in accordance with the notice of the controlling authority under rule 17 or sub-rule (6) of rule 18, the employee concerned, his nominee or heir, as the case may be, to whom the gratuity is payable, may apply to the controlling authority in duplicate in Form T for the recovery thereof under section 8.

20. Copies of decision, records and documents.—(1) Any employee or employer or a representative of an employee or employer shall be entitled to inspect any application, document or record filed with the controlling authority in a case in which the employee or the employer is a party, and may obtain copies thereof and of the decision of the controlling authority in relation to that case on payment of the requisite fees specified in the Schedule appended to these rules.

(2) An application for copy under sub-rule (1) shall be in Form U and shall be presented in person to the controlling authority during the hours fixed for the purpose by the controlling authority or shall be sent to him by registered post and shall be accompanied by a fee of seventy-five paise, which shall be paid in court-fee stamps affixed to the application.

(3) All copies shall be prepared on folios, and if it be not possible at once to inform the applicant what court-fee stamps and folios will be required in respect of the copies applied for, the requisite information shall be communicated to the applicant as soon as may be possible thereafter, but not later than seven days from the date on which the application is received by noting on the counterfoil portion of the application.
(4) In the case of certified copies, the court-fee chargeable under the West Bengal Court-Fees Act, 1970 (X of 1970), shall be levied by affixing the necessary stamp to the first folio of the copy.

(5) On receipt of the information referred to in sub-rule (3), the applicant shall present the requisite foils and court-fee stamps to the controlling authority along with the counterfoil of his original application, on which the receipt of the court-fee stamps and folios filed shall be acknowledged, and the date on which the copy will be ready for delivery noted and the counterfoil shall then be returned to the applicant.

(6) If the requisite folios and court-fee stamps are not filled within seven days from the date on which the information referred to in sub-rule (3) is communicated to the applicant, the application shall be liable to be struck off and an application so struck off shall not be revived, but in such case, a fresh application may be made.

(7) Urgent copies shall ordinarily be ready on the day following the date of payment of the urgent fees specified in this behalf in the Schedule and compliance with other requisites.

21. Register of application for copies.—Application for copies shall be numbered consecutively and entered in a register maintained for the purpose in Form V.

22. Register of Court-fees.(1) A Court-fee register shall be maintained in Form W by the controlling authority.

(2) Court-fee stamps shall be cancelled by punching in the manner laid down in section 44(2) of the West Bengal Court-Fees Act, 1970 (X of 1970).
